INSURED BY NCUA

All fees are subject to change without prior notification.

TEG Federal Credit Union's primary objective is to provide our members with quality financial services, economically priced, and consistently better than those available elsewhere. As a non-profit financial cooperative, we continuously strive for a balance between member benefit and the cost of the services we provide. Unlike other financial institutions, our fees are not inflated to generate revenue. By contrast, they are priced as low as possible to offset the expense we incur.
